Dear Devotees of Baba Tapaswiji on his boat Of Sat Kartar Beda Par

In life every experience is necessary as every day teaches the other day- every day has a meaning stored for the next day !

Every phase stores a lesson to be learnt for the next phase.

The process of learning never stops even when a person becomes old as long as there is element of consciousness in thoughts. Every decision of life is based upon antecedents.

An analytical mind is a storehouse of experiences.

Been insulted ? - Been left to lurch ? Been cheated ? Been humiliated ? Been shown the exit door ? Been dumped ? Been harassed ? Been pulled for no reason ? Been blamed ? Been hurted ? Been taken for a ride ? Though bad yet its Okay ! as all this was necessary and is necessary and would be necessary in life as part of a falling into the pond of experiences to come out fresh with wisdom gained in life.

Experiences can never be bought- they can only be earned with the grace and counsel of years.

It is said Guru is storehouse of grace and when the Guru is compassionate towards the devotee, he allows his devotee ride smooth through all or any kinds of experiences necessary as manifestation for growth.

Sometimes a devotee it so happens that he complains to the Guru, and sometimes might blame the Guru and if that is not enough at times would even coerce the Guru for certain experiences that the devotee has gone through. It has become so easy for him or her to blame and coerce the Guru !

The Guru is always as compassionate towards his beloved devotee whose sole purpose is to raise the consciousness of the devotee from the ordinary to the extraordinary and let him understand the true meaning of life through the real-time experiences.

When you were insulted Guru was there watching your humiliation - When you were left to lurch with Guru's grace you could bear -when you were cheated with Guru's grace you had the capacity to forgive- when you were humiliated with Guru's grace you were compassionate- when you were shown you the exit door- The Guru opened the other door for you - when you were dumped the Guru brought in your life that individual who wanted you so badly- when you were harassed The Guru brought those people in your life who made your life easy- When you were pulled for no reason The Guru showed you at that end that justice got delivered- When you were blamed The Guru brought the wrong doers to the books- When you were taken for a ride The Guru actually made you strong enough to trust those who were worthy. If the Guru has done all that he could to allow you glide smoothly thorough all your bad experiences and if you believe it and agree this viewpoint then how can Guru be ever blamed or even coerced ? but even that is okay with the Guru because he knows you - He loves you for what you are - When the Guru ignites the kundalini shakti in a devotee it is then that the devotee understands that all the experiences that he or she goes through is divine play of consciousness.

Surely you must have heard that everyone has a story of own to say about life. That itself signifies the fact that life is a story. That life is a play of consciousness wherein the human being by virtue of having evolved out of 84 lacs of births in different forms of species has taken birth to understand the meaning of life. It is only in human form that meaning of life can be understood.

Here is a short story there used to be three good warriors and they all fought for their land and having lost their lives together in a combat they all carried in their wallets small pieces of paper with their last wishes mentioned in each one's pocket.

When the war was won the countrymen opened the wallets of the warriors and in the paper of the first warrior was written I WISH TO BE THE KING - it so happened that he was reincarnated as a King in his next birth.

In the wallet of the second warrior was found the words written as I WISH TO BE THE COMMANDER - he was born in his next birth as Commander in the military.

When the wallet of the third one was opened the countrymen found the words written as I KNOW WHY THERE ARE WARS ? - LIFE IS A PLAY OF CONSCIOUSNESS AND I PLAYED MY PART AS A WARRIOR AND AND I UNDERSTAND WHAT IS MEANING OF LIFE. I HAVE NO WISHES.

The third one never took a rebirth and attained liberation.
